MMTC COMMENDS FCC COMMISSIONER
MEREDITH BAKER FOR HER PUBLIC SERVICE

The Minority Media and Telecommunications Council (MMTC) commends FCC Commissioner Meredith Attwell Baker for her years of dedication to public service. Throughout her career, Commissioner Baker has been a champion of diversity, judicious spectrum management, and affordable television and broadband access for all Americans.

We particularly commend Commissioner Baker for the interest she took in MMTC and in civil rights and minority entrepreneurship issues. MMTC could always count her among those public officials willing to speak at our conferences and spend time with conference attendees.

Commissioner Baker's door was always open to MMTC. On the many occasions MMTC has worked with her, she has always demonstrated care, thoughtfulness, impartiality and sound judgment.

We appreciate everything Commissioner Baker has done for the national interest and wish her a successful transition to her new career.
