RE: T-Mobile's Music Freedom Program

MMTC is pleased to support T-Mobile's Music Freedom Program, which provides innovative music services to consumers, and without charge to participating music streaming service providers (see <http://newsroom.t-mobile.com/news/music-streaming-momentum-update.htm>)

And we are especially thrilled that Radio One's music service, Black Planet, is now included in this landmark music offer. Music Freedom has made history by opening its national wireless platform to diverse-owned enterprises.
