

Press Statement

Contact: Ananda Leeke, Chief Social Media Officer
aleeke@mmtconline.org (202) 261-6543

MMTC Congratulates Olivia Trusty on Being Nominated to Serve as FCC Commissioner

WASHINGTON, DC (January 17, 2025): The Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council (MMTC) congratulates U.S. Senate aide Olivia Trusty on being nominated by President-elect Donald J. Trump to serve as a Commissioner on the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Trusty has served as a staffer for Senator Roger Wicker (R-MS), including a role as Policy Director for the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Communications, Technology, Innovation, and the Internet. Previously, she worked on telecommunications and technology issues for the House Energy and Commerce Committee and served as Legislative Assistant to Congressman Bob Latta (R-OH).

“MMTC congratulates Trusty on her nomination to the FCC. Her telecommunications and technology policymaking expertise will be a major asset to the agency,” said MMTC President and CEO Robert E. Branson. “We wholeheartedly support her nomination and look forward to working with her and her fellow commissioners to ensure our nation’s broadband future.

* * * * *

About MMTC:

The Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council (MMTC) is a non-partisan, national nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting and preserving equal opportunity and civil rights in the mass media, telecom and broadband industries, and closing the digital divide on behalf of its members and constituents, including owners of radio and television broadcast stations, programmers, prospective station owners, and others involved in the TMT industries. MMTC is generally recognized as the nation’s leading advocate for minority advancement in communications. MMTC’s vision is to achieve a fully connected, educated, healthy, and empowered society in which all communities thrive. Visit MMTC’s website here.